Constructive 360 feedback training / workshop for leadership team

BACKGROUND

Established in 2002, the International Cocoa Initiative (ICI) is a leading organisation promoting child protection in cocoa-growing communities. ICI works with the cocoa industry, civil society, farmers’ organisations, communities and national governments in cocoa-producing countries to ensure a better future for children and contribute to the elimination of child labour. Operating in Côte d’Ivoire and Ghana since 2007, ICI has promoted holistic child protection measures in more than 600 cocoa-growing communities benefiting over 1 million people, 682,500 of whom are children.

ICI is a Swiss foundation. ICI Secretariat is based in Geneva, Switzerland, with national offices in Ghana and in Ivory Coast. ICI has presently around 150 staff members within the 3 entities, with a larger scope in Ivory Coast.

Early 2021, ICI introduced a 360-feedback exercise trial for the managers team only. For ICI, it is a critical supplement to goal-based performance assessment for leader-managers, with the intention to be duplicated at middle-management level in the future. However, before duplication, ICI needs to ensure that management team members have a common understanding of the 360-feedback approach and they are trained and coached on how to interpret, how to use the results and how to create a personal development plan.
MISSION

In that context, ICI is looking for an experienced trainer / coach with a solid experience of 360 multi-rater feedback in the context of leadership development, ideally in the non-for-profit sector, to reinforce ICI management and middle-management team members skills in:

   - Considering the broader purpose of 360-degree feedback which is to raise self-awareness and open-up an individual to change and develop, it follows that the debrief is the catalyst for this process: discover and understand proven uses of 360 feedback for development, appraisal, succession plan, employee engagement and team effectiveness
   - how to get out of your comfort zone and to give constructive feedback? How to be fact-based feedback? Why feedback is important? What is your role in the 360 processes?

II. Understand and outcome of a 360-feedback report
   - The 360-feedback report:
     Its purpose, objectives and making sense of the numbers: What do they mean? How do you interpret the data? How do you identify the key feedback themes and draw appropriate / balanced conclusions?
   - Debriefing efficiently a 360 session:
     how to be prepared and to run the meeting as a debriefer and what to cover in a concrete and concise manner? How to support people deal with negative / critical feedback, to help the recipient understand what the feedback is really saying to them and to accept that there is information they need to pay attention to?
   - Challenging conversations:
     how to handle difficult conversation? How to convey and enable two-way dialogue with empathy and understanding
   - Creating a constructive action plan:
     how to convert 360 feedback data into positive development actions? And how to follow up on the plan?
